TYPO

100 years of progress
Most will still trade death for death
In 38 states
It hasn't solved the problem yet
Yet they still proclaim
They protect the innocent
The slaughter doesn't save
23 have died from this

A typo can not be changed
When innocent get the blame

They add to the count
When they kill for revenge
Though shall not kill
Seems to be their sacred hymm they kill with a vote when you vote to throw the switch no matter what it takes
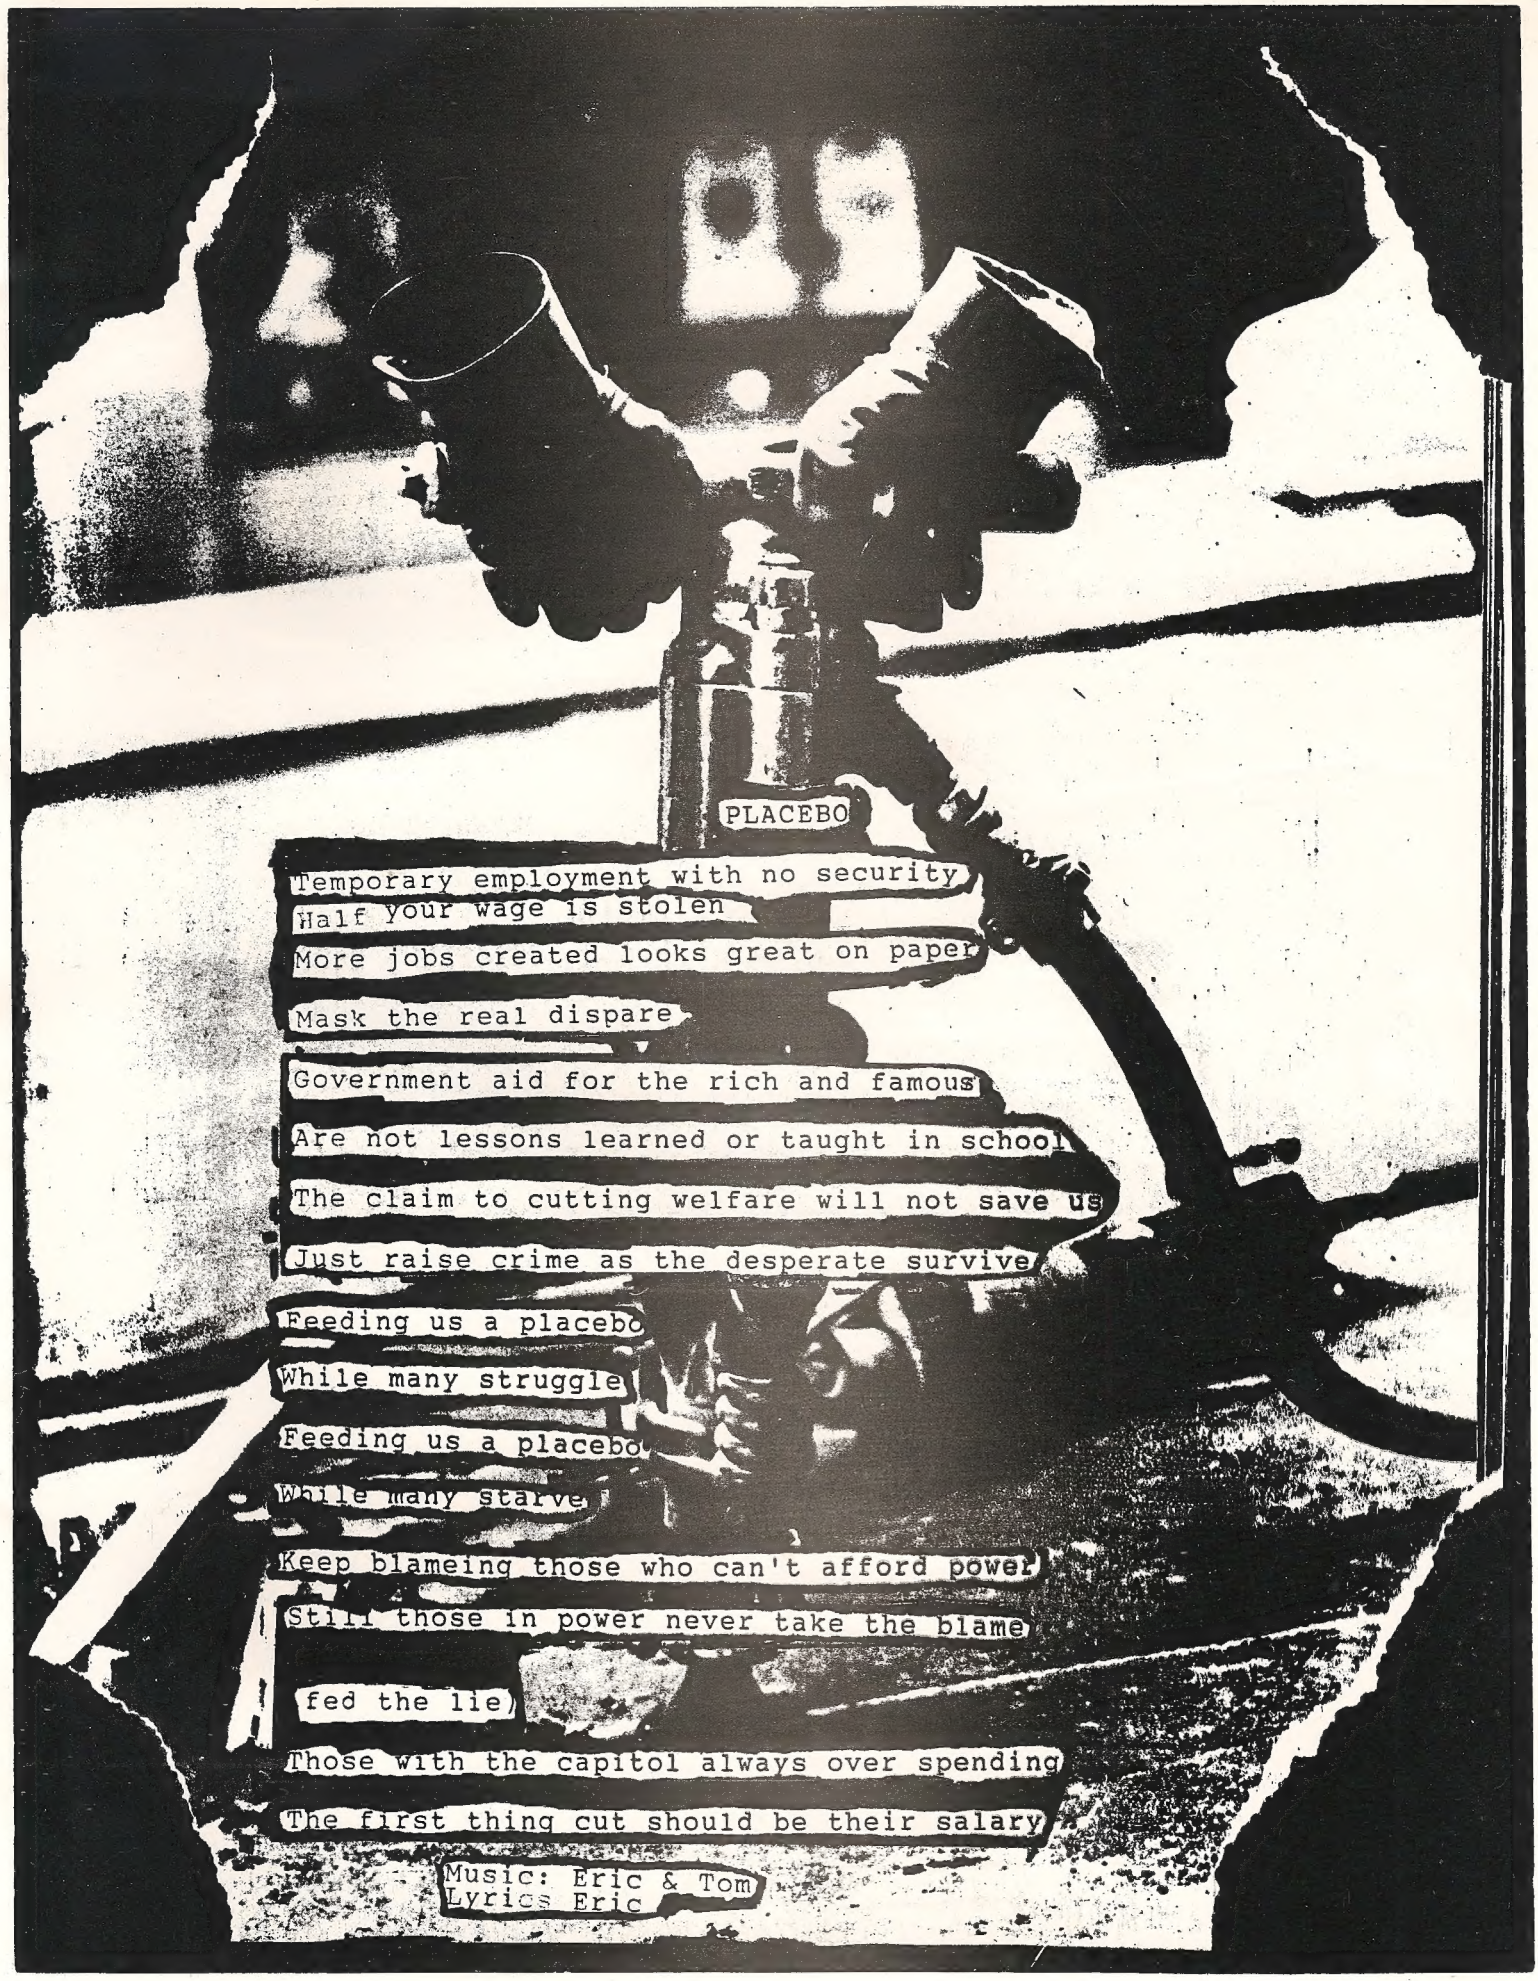
We must abolish this

Make a life-----sentence last a lifetime
We would see
Those falsely accused
Would stand a chance
Due to imperfections
We need the change
For the only hope
A life to save

Lyrics; Eric P.



PLACEBO

Temporary employment with no security
Half your wage is stolen
More jobs created looks great on paper
Mask the real dispare
Government aid for the rich and famous
Are not lessons learned or taught in school
The claim to cutting welfare will not save us
Just raise crime as the desperate survive
Feeding us a placebo
While many struggle
Feeding us a placebo
While many starve
Keep blameing those who can't afford power
Still those in power never take the blame fed the lie)
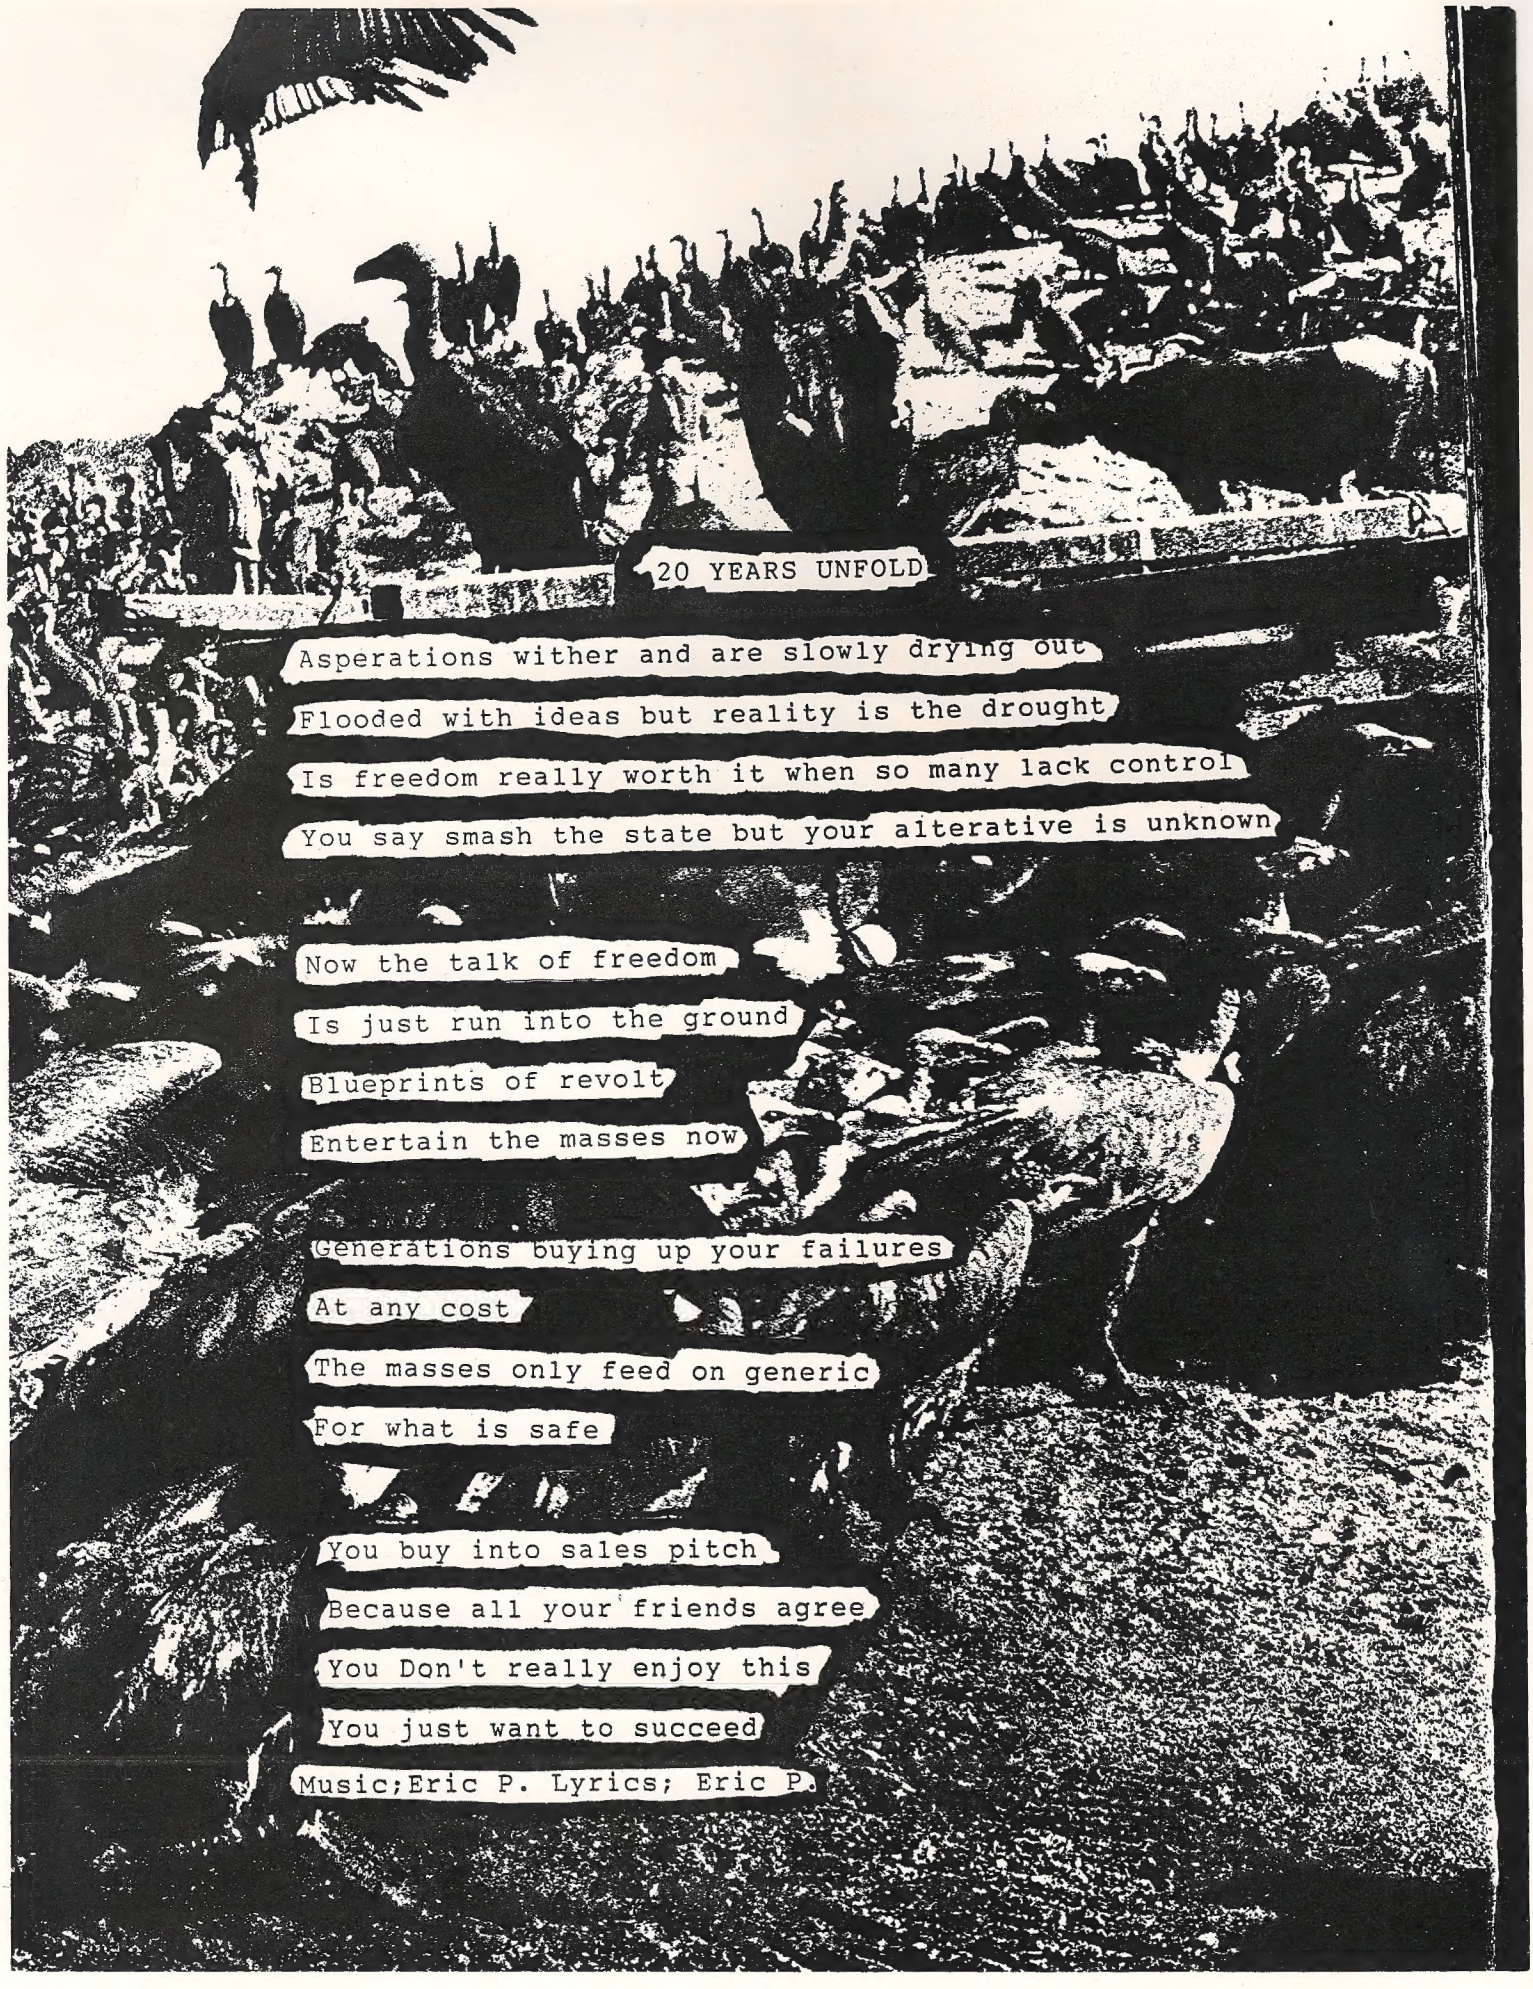
Those with the capitol always over spending
The first thing cut should be their salary

Music: Eric & Tom
Lyrics Eric



20 YEARS UNFOLD

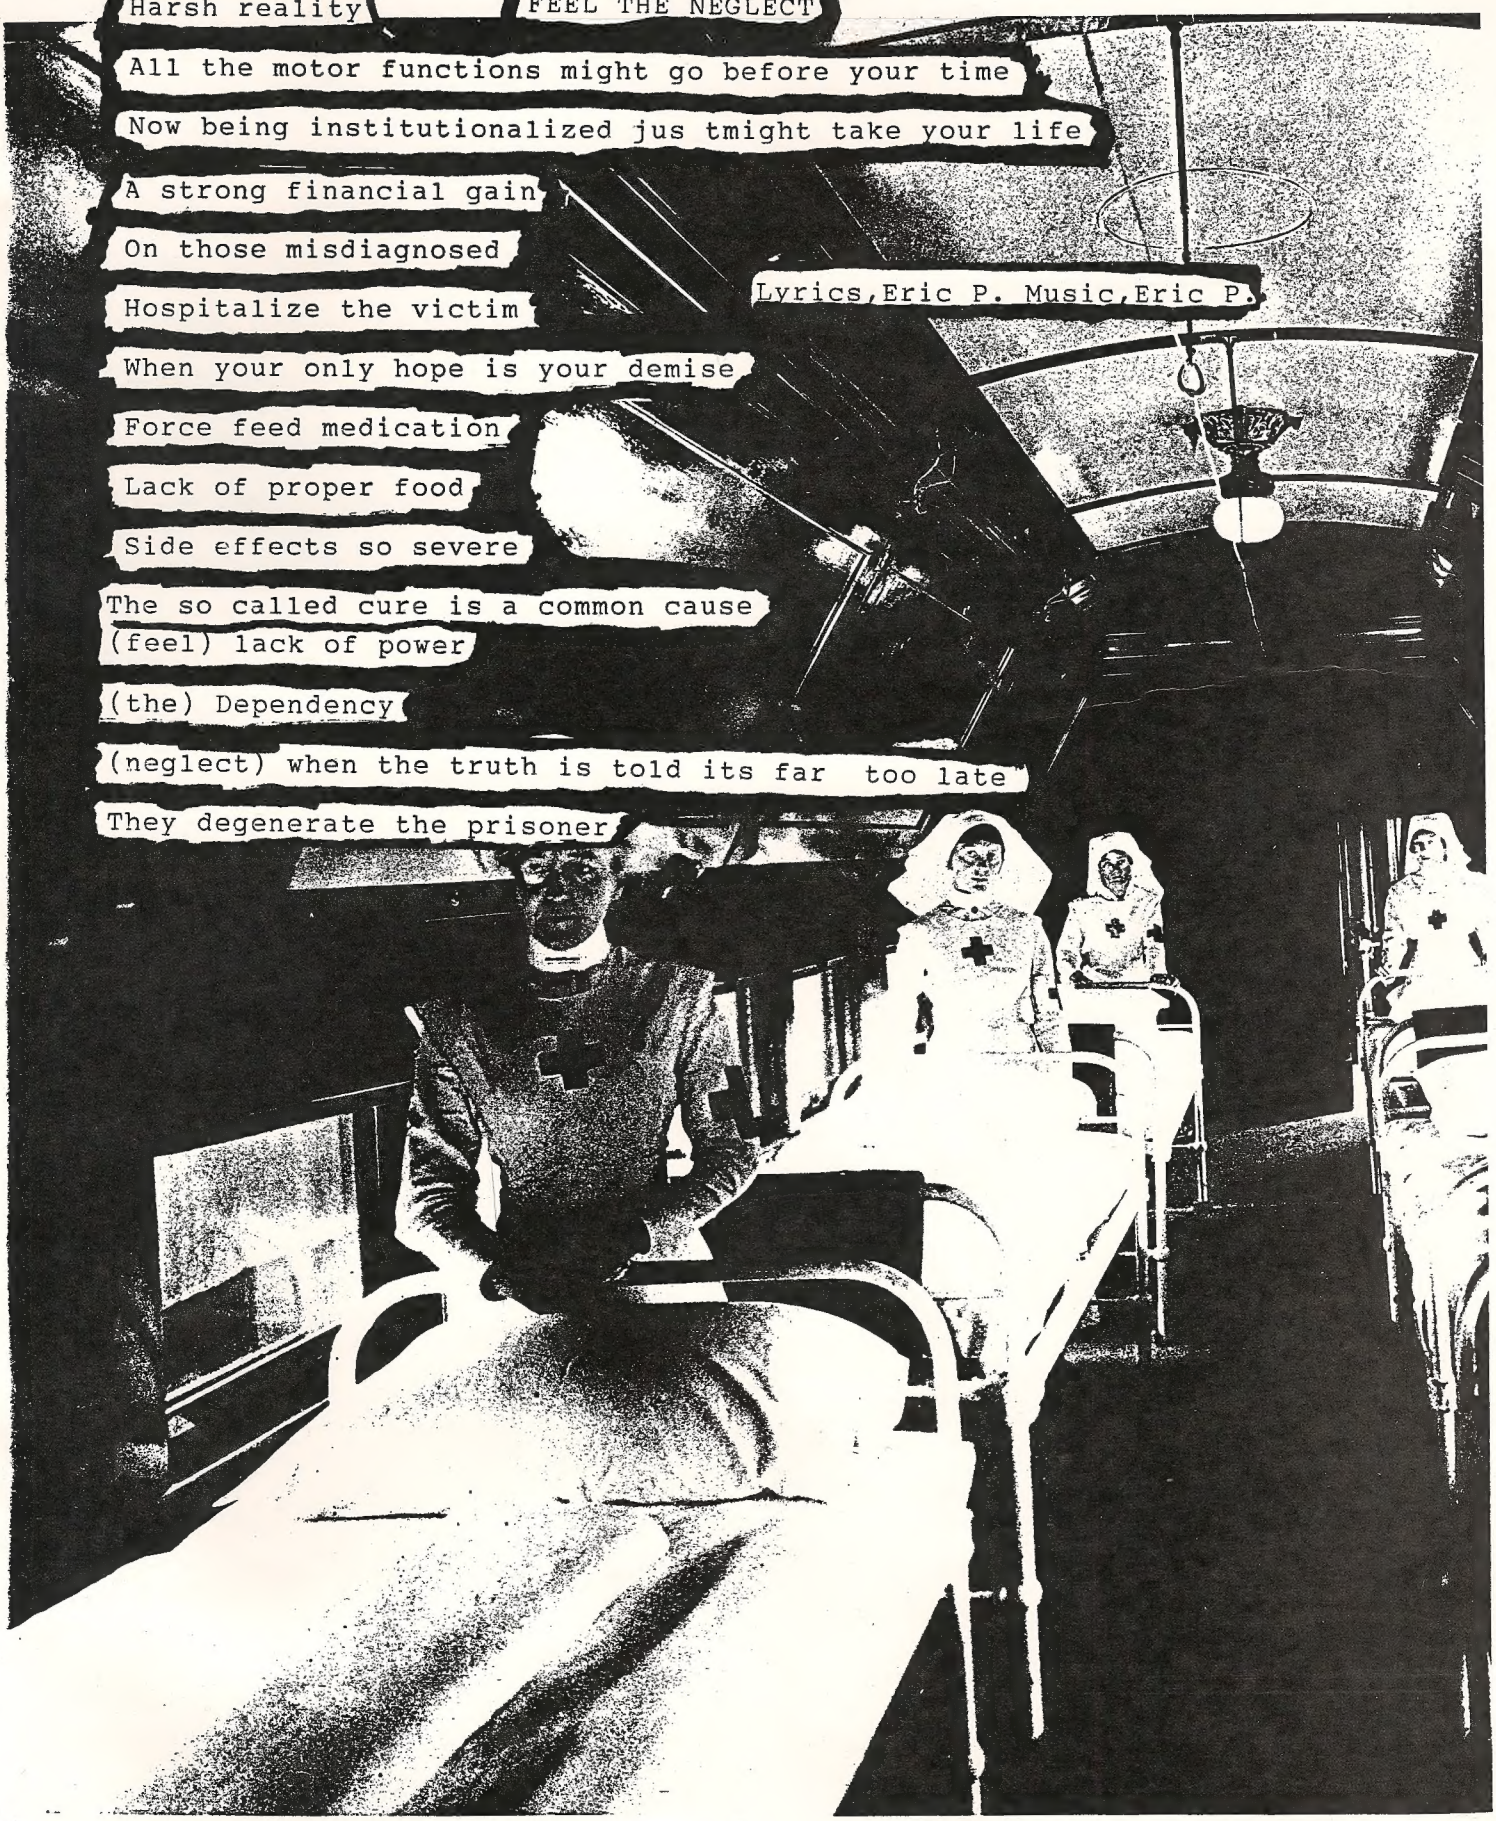
Asperations wither and are slowly drying out
Flooded with ideas but reality is the drought
Is freedom really worth it when so many lack control
You say smash the state but your alterative is unknown

Now the talk of freedom
Is just run into the ground
Blueprints of revolt
Entertain the masses now

Generations buying up your failures
At any cost
The masses only feed on generic
For what is safe

You buy into sales pitch
Because all your friends agree
You Don't really enjoy this
You just want to succeed

Music;Eric P. Lyrics; Eric P.



Harsh reality
FEEL THE NEGLECT
All the motor functions might go before your time
Now being institutionalized jus tmight take your life
A strong financial gain
On those misdiagnosed
Lyrics,Eric P. Music,Eric P.
Hospitalize the victim
When your only hope is your demise
Force feed medication
Lack of proper food
Side effects so severe
The so called cure is a common cause
(feel) lack of power
(the) Dependency
(neglect) when the truth is told its far too late
They degenerate the prisoner

EVERYDAY

12 years of silence, taught to unlearn
Taught to trust and to serve
What makes you a slave
Reaction not reason, forget and ignore
Told to remember, who did you live for Everyday - lose sight of who you are Reminded of what you are Intelligence lost in a fit of progress

Reduced to serenity - lost to what cause
Materials vs morals - submissive thinking
The outcome of lost time - always a product
The stains on your hands - gratify the void

Lyrics:Randy W. Music: Eric P.

Thomas Hart Benton: New School Murals (detail), Steel, 1930

Life wilts to Lies as you
Back false anthems hope to believe
Always hiding behind a flag stained with blood with overpublisized opinions that you call your own
You, your country, stand on a pedestal
Of stolen lives, screaming through your anthem
Play it enought times
Maybe you'll forget, or maybe just believe
Music; L.P. Lyrics; Randy W.

Thomas Hart Benton: New School Murals (detail), City Scenes, 1930

STATE OF REMISSION
You follow the myths
But do they follow your life
Is your god really leading you
Or is it just in your mind
Born diseased, condemned to die
Soon washed away by the plaque known as time
Still you pain over life after death
What if your belief is a lie, lie
Final decision was a State of Remission
Spending your life in denial
Your hopes for death make your life worse
Your devotion doesn't matter if there's none to praise
Your ignorance to death was your reason for life
Gaining faith-while losing your life
Living by the words-of men you have never met
Lyrics; Randy W. Music;Eric P.

RECYCLE THE FREE

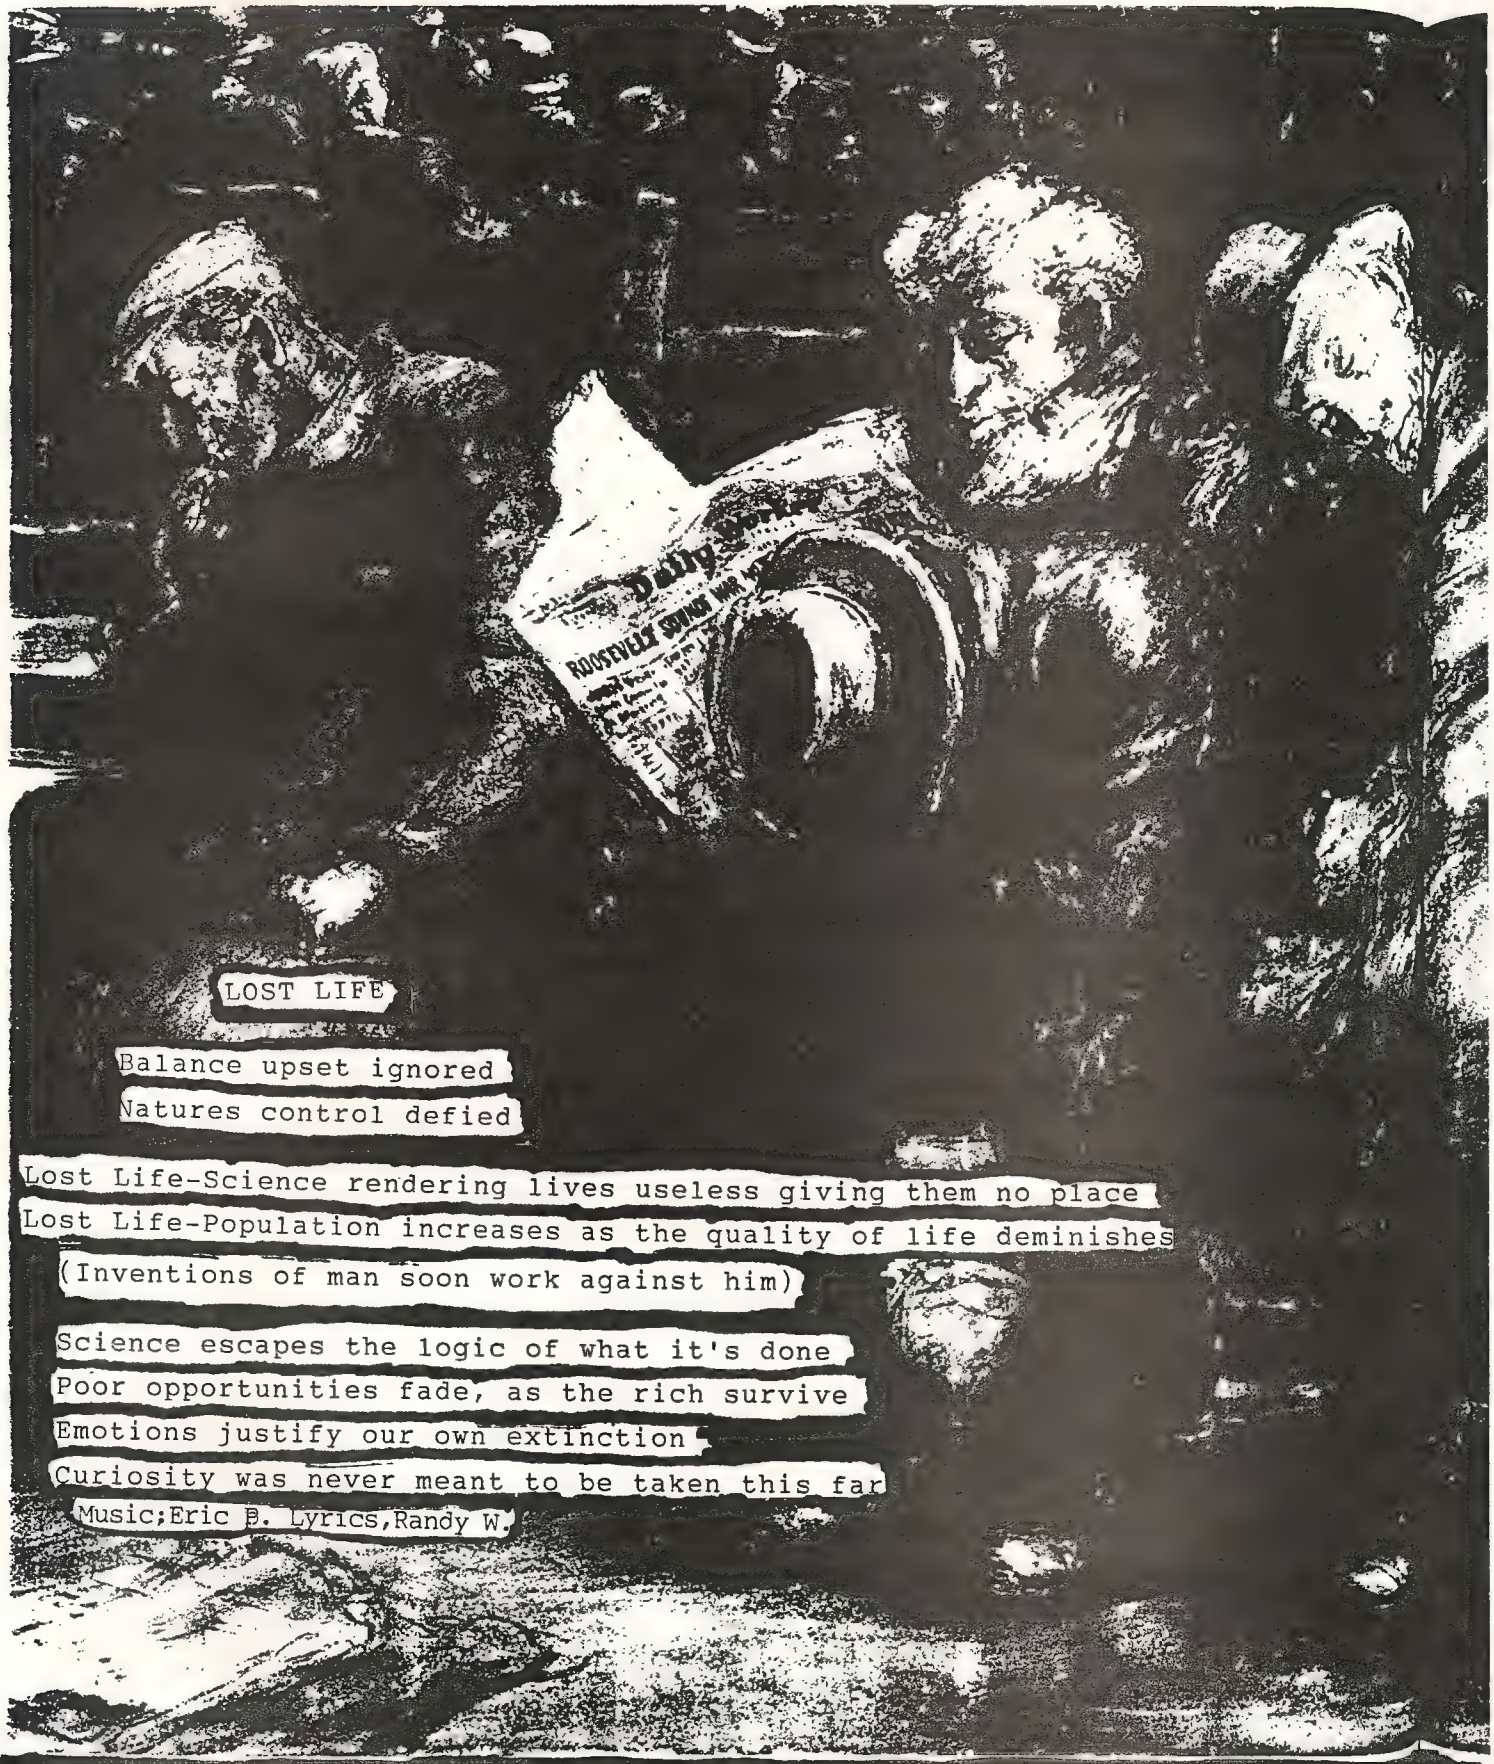
Recycle the free
Recycle the free
Fear the control
Controlled by the fear

Distance is gained
Fearing even those next door
Forfeit your power
For the freedom that you ignore
All trust is tainted
From pictures painted on the screen
Your ideal of freedom
Is to forfeit everything

The last page is turned
When the censors only goal
Is to censor progress
The last laugh is heard
When all those safe are drowning in silence

Music;Eric P. Lyrics; Eric P.

SUFFOCULTURE
Lists full of standards we're forced to comply
Humans, not robots, our instincts force us to fight
As prisons get crowded, more take their place
Evolving to a point were all humans live in a cage
The suffoculture trying to right the wrongs
Of human nature
Always recruiting more for the "Civil War"
Mutilate, imprison, if they will not conform
Adapt to emotionless productive ways
Emotions have no place in our technocracy
Lyrics;Randy W. Music, Eric P.



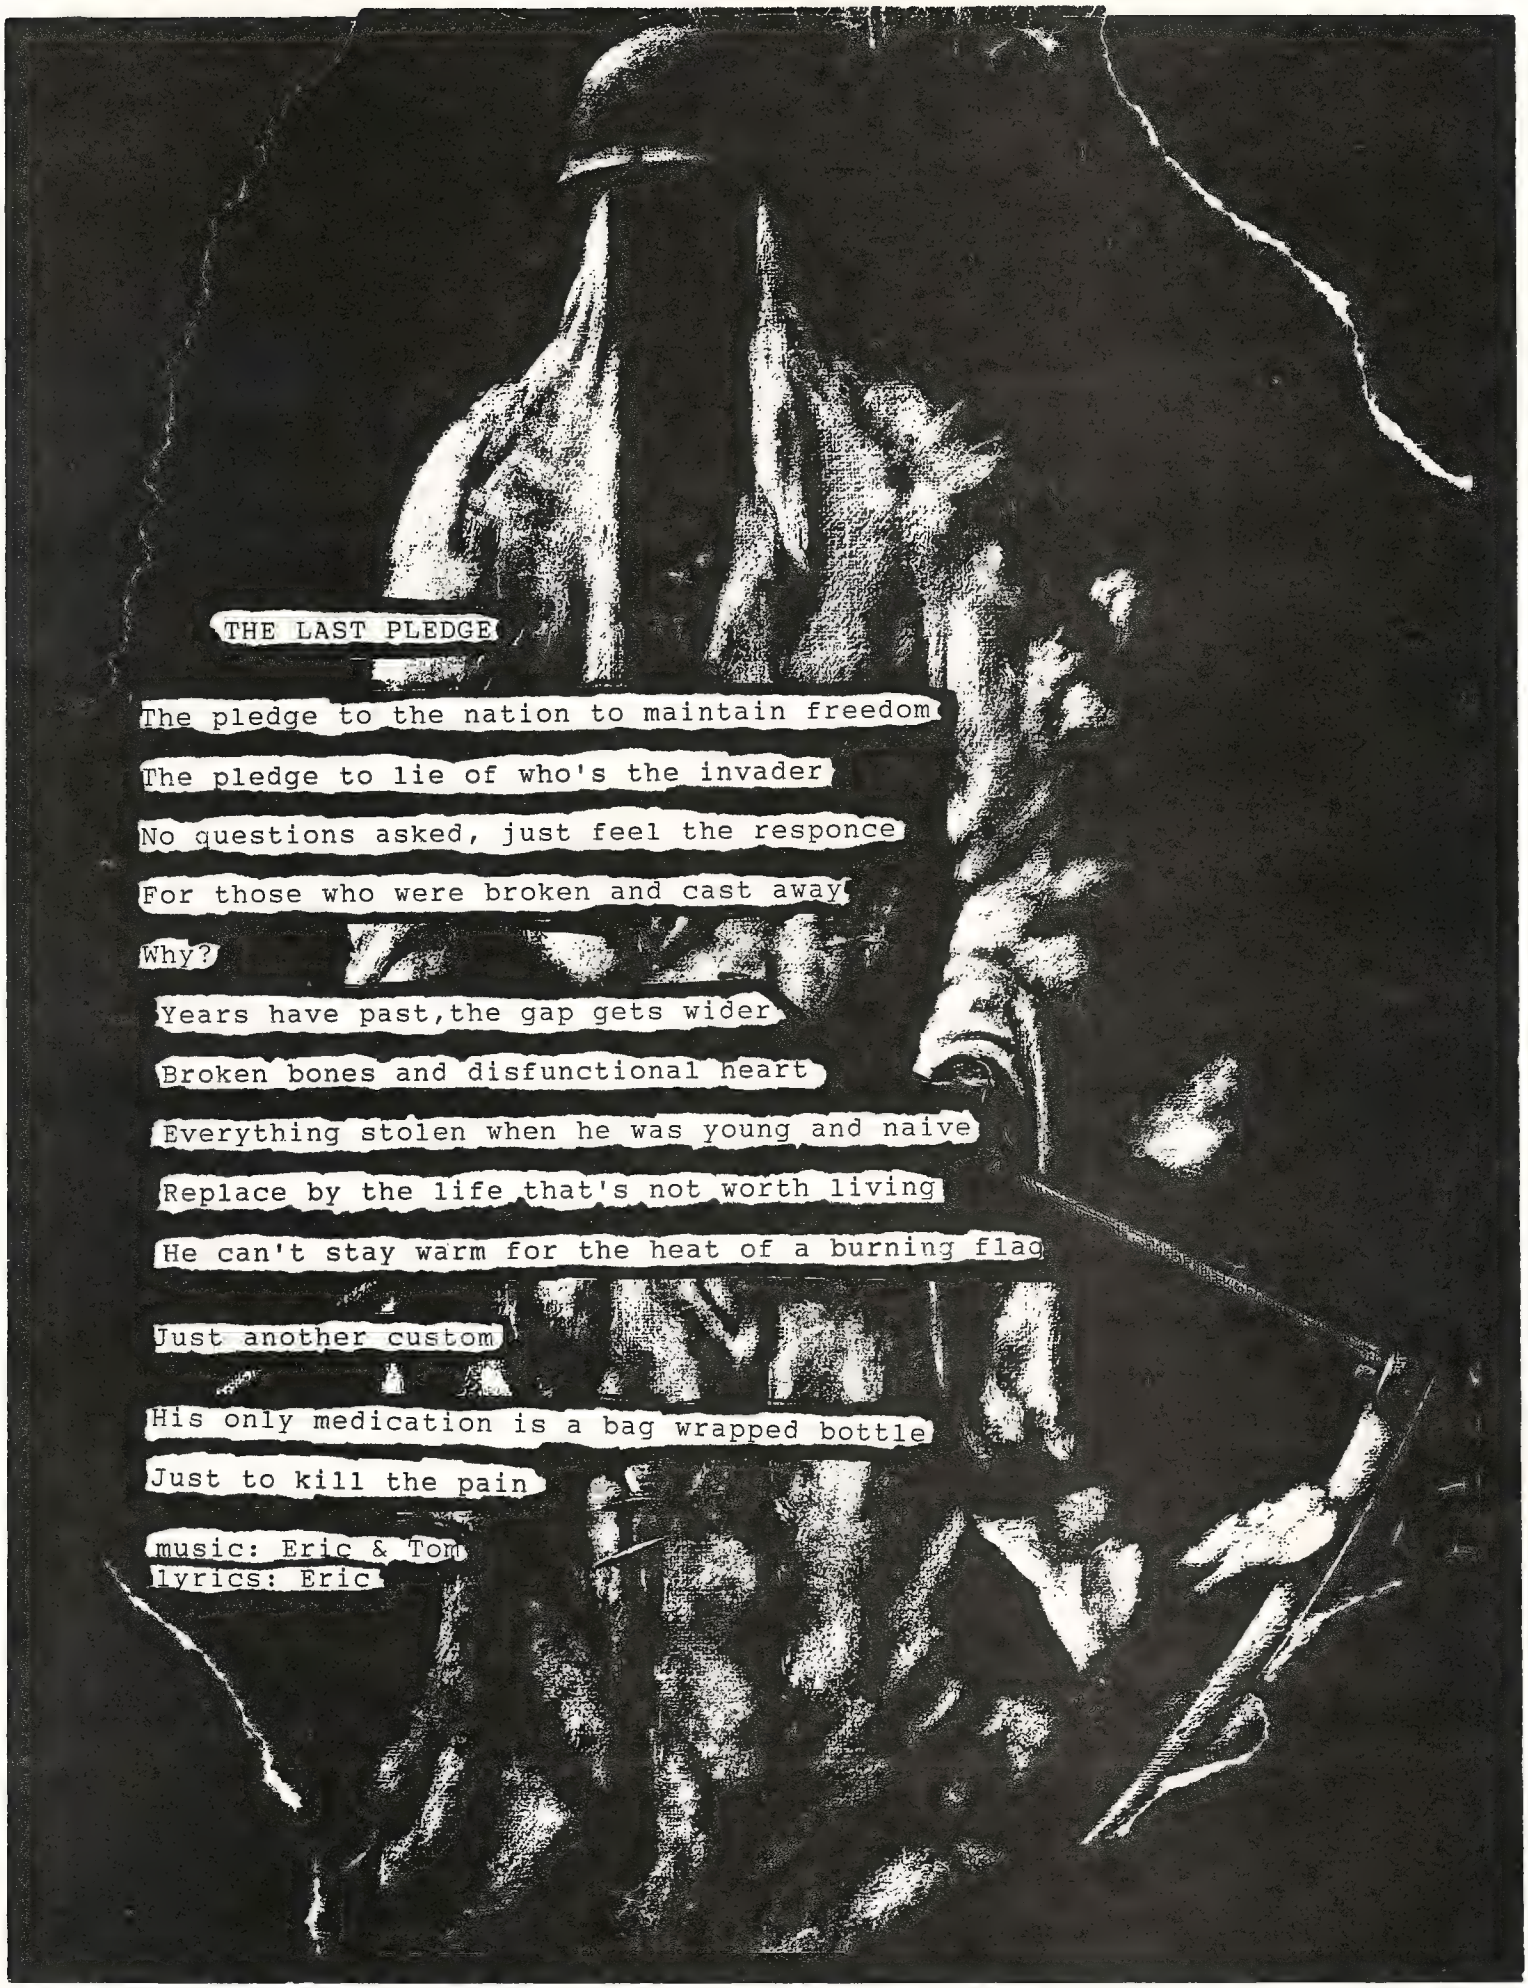
LOST LIFE

Balance upset ignored
Natures control defied

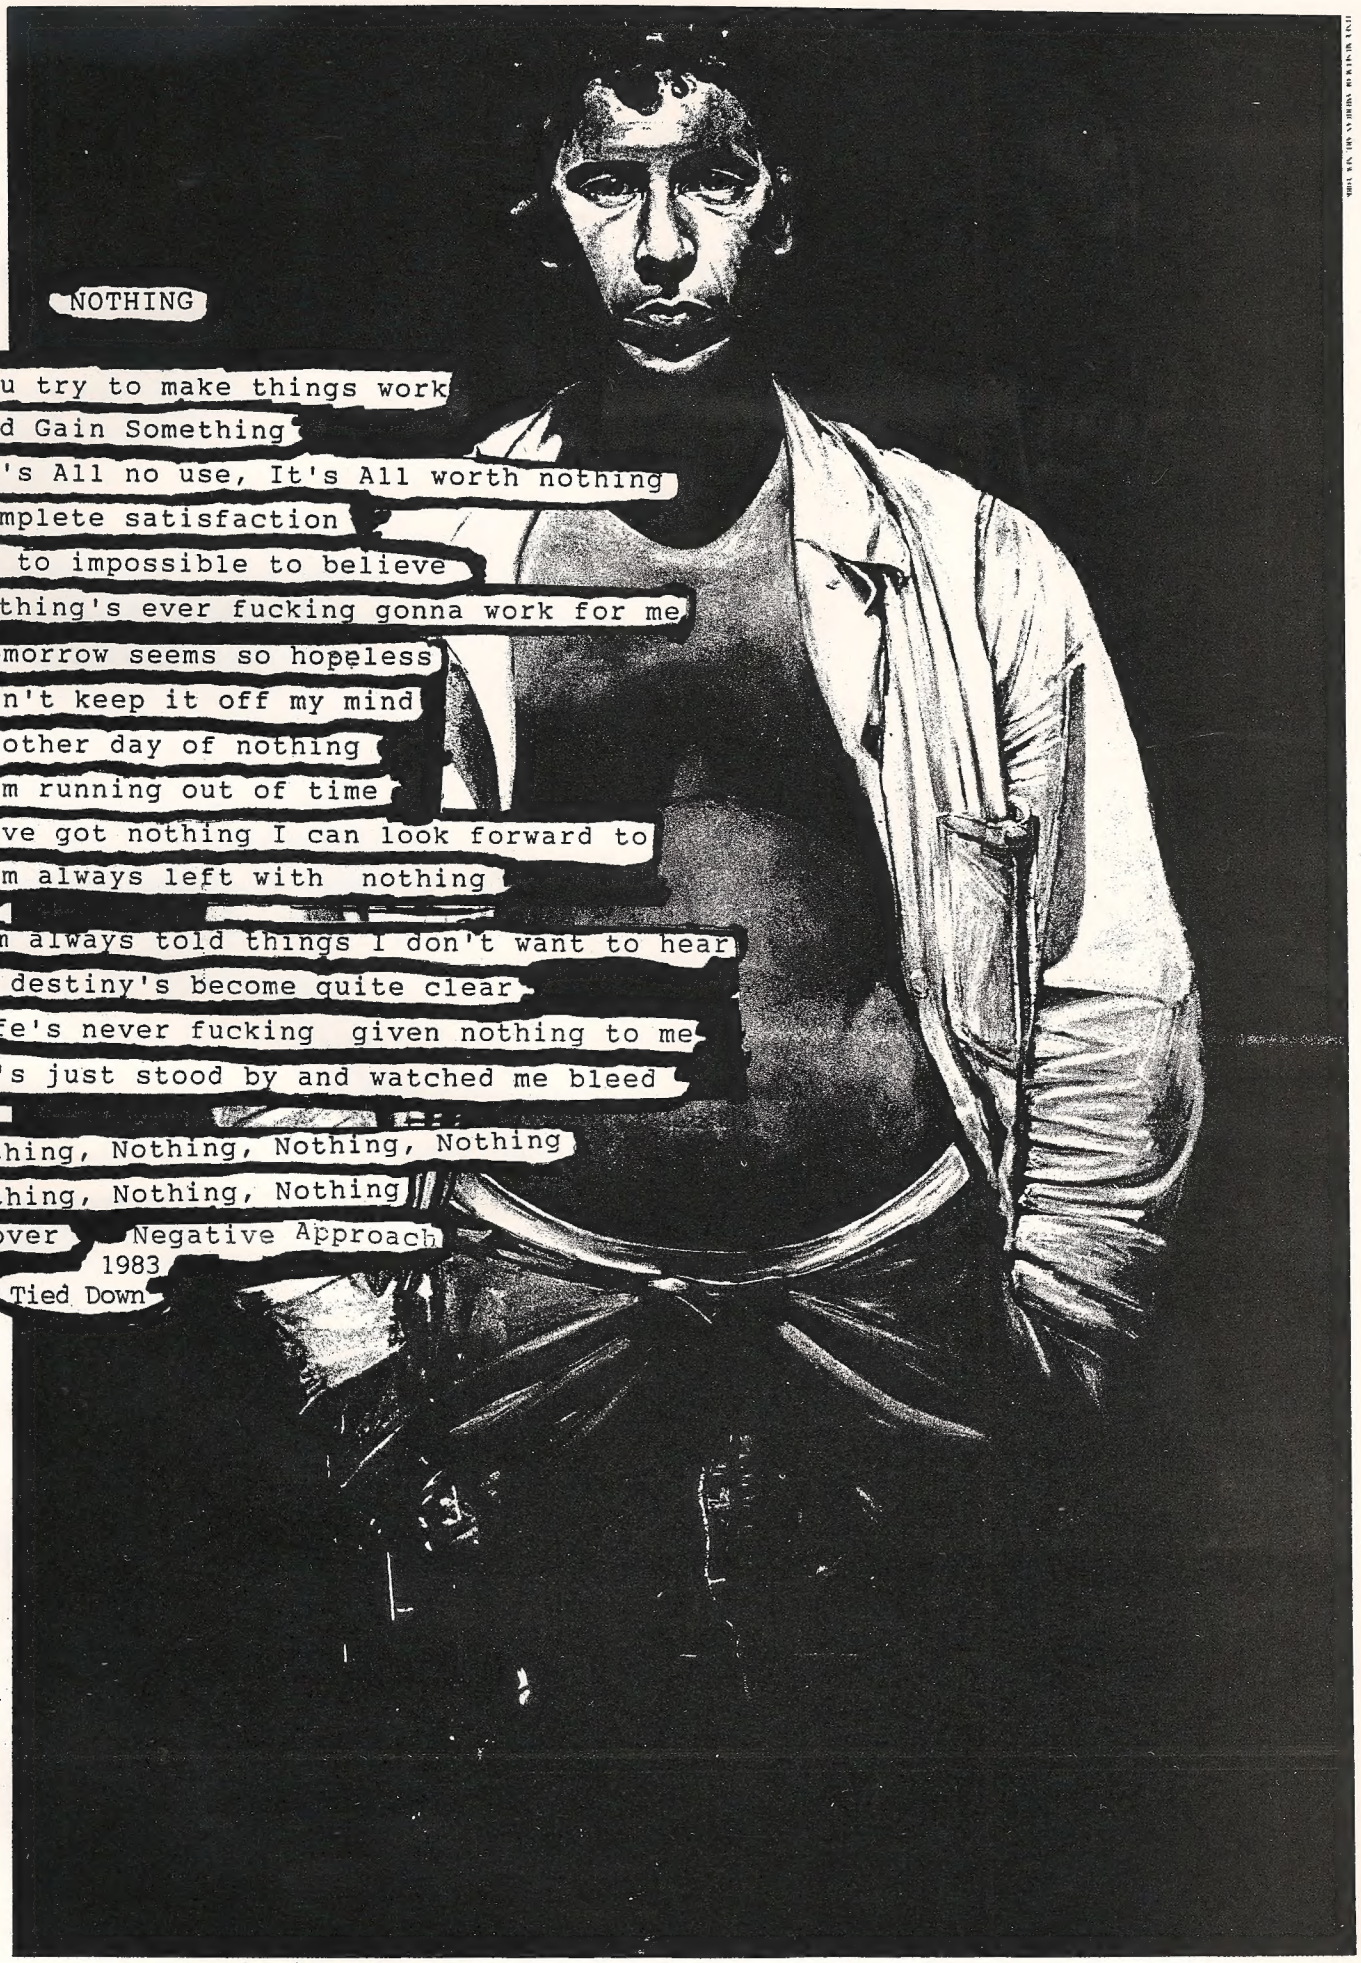
Lost Life-Science rendering lives useless giving them no place
Lost Life-Population increases as the quality of life deminishes
(Inventions of man soon work against him)

Science escapes the logic of what it's done
Poor opportunities fade, as the rich survive
Emotions justify our own extinction
Curiosity was never meant to be taken this far

Music;Eric B. Lyrics,Randy W.



THE LAST PLEDGE
The pledge to the nation to maintain freedom
The pledge to lie of who's the invader
No questions asked, just feel the responce
For those who were broken and cast away
Why?
Years have past,the gap gets wider
Broken bones and disfunctional heart
Everything stolen when he was young and naive
Replace by the life that's not worth living
He can't stay warm for the heat of a burning flag
Just another custom
His only medication is a bag wrapped bottle
Just to kill the pain
music: Eric & Tom
lyrics: Eric



NOTHING
You try to make things work
And Gain Something
It's All no use, It's All worth nothing
Complete satisfaction
Is to impossible to believe
Nothing's ever fucking gonna work for me
Tomorrow seems so hopeless
Can't keep it off my mind
Another day of nothing
I'm running out of time
I've got nothing I can look forward to I'm always left with nothing
I'm always told things I don't want to hear
My destiny's become quite clear
Life's never fucking given nothing to me
It's just stood by and watched me bleed
Nothing, Nothing, Nothing, Nothing
Nothing, Nothing, Nothing
